

Humpin Trail: #872: Black Shirt Boys Lay trail for All Turd Boy's Birthday Poway. Pack Size: 42 Nov29, 2009. Written by Cocky Mountain Snowball

Obviously I dont want to take this duty (hehe I said doodie) from Anal, nor would it be anywhere close to as funny as his recreations. But, if you'd like...

Here are some highlights:

- Trail was done by the black shirt crowd of; Regura Bait Her, Kid's meals, Drilldo, and Spot on my Ass, in lieu of All Turd Boy who had actually signed up for the date
  - Trail was 4.85 miles through Poway overlapping some areas from Cocky's and DSD's run last month and get-a-life week humpin trail- see Link for map (<http://www.mapmyrun.com/run/united-states/ca/poway/676125954774168031>)
  - Trail was A to A to a lot on Old Pomerado. The lot was the only place on the whole street that allows parking and Just Chelsea talked to the cops beforehand and got permission for us to drink and have our On-In in the lot.
  - The hares actually did a really good job with trail.
  - There was ABSOLUTELY NO PRELAYING, if by no you actually mean mostly prelayed ;-)
  - Right off the bat, the pack got yelled at for being on private property before traveling through a small water-filled tunnel under pomerado rd
  - There were 4 beer checks 2 with beer 1 with "nuclear bombs" aka irish car bombs and one with "incredible hulk juice" a green concoction of some sort
  - Father A was led by Bandito and pack was away about 2:30
  - Stunt Cock was both the hash-shit and FRB and he actually carried both on trail the whole way
  - Stunt Cock still finished first
  - For Hash shit demo SC drank from each vessel individually before realizing he needed to use both then dazzled us by doing so with the waterfall technique
  - Virgin to the Humpin was visitor Six Minutes of Steve (SMOS) from Sacramento, he was paired with Daddy doesnt know
  - When asked what he learned about Daddy SMOS started to tell her naming story and we boo'd him saying "we know, we named her"
  - When called up to circle SMOS was referred to as "six seconds of steve" by Chic Clit
  - Circle was led by CC and DSD
  - Since BORT and Nookie were at N-S Intercourse, ECT helped out the hares with Snax and layed out a spread left overs from ECT's and DrZ's Homeless Hasher
- Thanksgiving.
- No namings
  - No headbands. (DSD got the circle finished before DrZ could even open his mouth to announce headbands).
  - No headband and whistle check
  - It was come as your favorite superhero themed and mostly the hares dressed up but Deep Chocolate was super ladybug, Drilldo won best dressed and $3.99 was some S&M guy or something along with his friend just someone and they had multiple spanking devices (cats of nine tails, paddles etc.)

- All Turd was recognized for his birth with 31 spankings by various hashers with said spanking devices and Goes Downy was recognized for coming of legal drinking age – & finally able to partake the golden nectar, Stone Pale Ale (or maybe Natty, who knows. Guess we'll find out next week). She got the spanking machine or as SMOS referred to it "the spanking gauntlet"

- The hash-shit was passed to Seabiscuit for telling some lame story in attempt at a gorilla down down, it was obviously so funny i have forgotten it

- This was after it was supposed to have passed to either Wax or Bandito earlier but when asked what he had added (even though he actually had added something) Stunt Cock replied "nothing" resulting in DSD tossing it back at him (still upright) and him catching it and spilling the sweet nectar he had filled it with on himself. (truly one of the funniest moments of circle!)

- The FRB mug was actually passed to Mannogram (despite SC finishing first even with the mug and hash shit) for bragging to CC that he had finished 3rd at the hash today

- It was cold

- There were mosquitos

Hope you like the bullets,

on on
